

Synthetic placeholder words make up this first paragraph so that the edit has three lines that wrap at one width.

A second paragraph follows the first one and must not move when the first is edited.

Synthetic placeholder words make up this first paragraph so that the edit has three lines that wrap at one width.

and must not move when the first is edited.